Left: Miss Marcia Haley was one of the more popular teachers; partially because of her encouragement to her students not to be embarrassed to express their opinions openly as well as honestly.

Above: MRS. YOLANDA BOUFFARD often seemed to exhibit expressions of joy and happiness in life and the world in which we live.

Above: MRS. MAHONEY expressed her happiness at San Juan by depicting the phrase: "I luv you this much".

Below: Yearbook Editor, MARTHA ROSETHAL, expressed her dedication to the annual by devoting extra time to check pages, to produce a worthwhile annual.

Above: BOB WARREN bit into his sandwhich hungrily as he exposed a common student necessity; lunch!

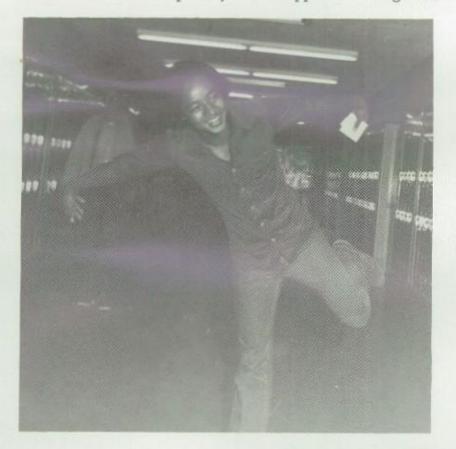

The expressed is never fruitless.

Below: RICK MOSS portrayed his happiness at his grade.

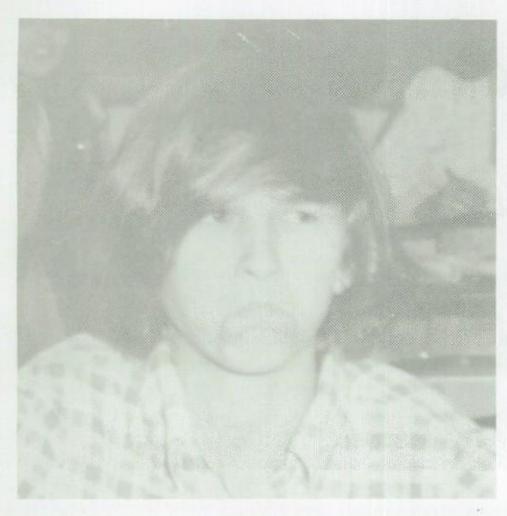

Below: DONNA HAGG worked diligently in student gov't.

Above: A freshman expressed his dismay at his inability to think of the solution to a problem.

The fate of all extremes is such:

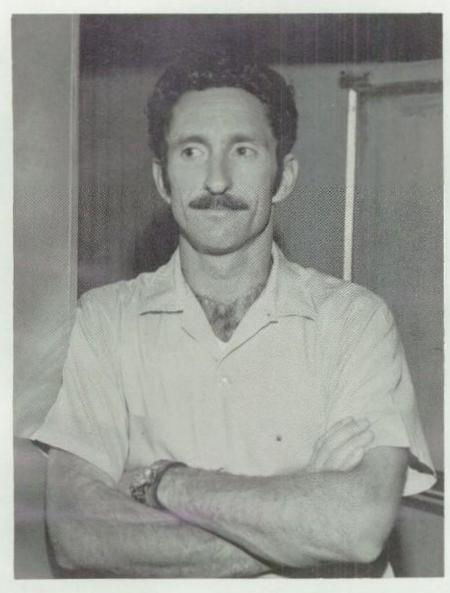

Men may be read as well as books, too much.

Below: Expressions of unhappiness were apparent on the faces of the Freshman Cheerleaders, when San Juan lost a game.

Right: MR. TRENT expressed his surprise at being caught by the photographer.

Special Awards

Two San Juan Teachers Are Honored

This year, the students of San Juan High School have chosen to dedicate this edition of Greenback Notes to Mr. Don Crowl. Mr. Crowl has taught at San Juan since 1963, and has always taught in the science department. He has coached the wrestling team and led them to many victories. Students liked to come into Mr. Crowl's room just to laugh and joke around. Always ready for a laugh, it is understandable why the 1974-75 yearbook has been dedicated to Mr. Don Crowl. Bald is truly beautiful!

With Special Awards

Mr. Robert Allen has been selected by the faculty and administration as the teacher to be awarded Special Recognition by the staff of Greenback Notes. He has been teaching at san Juan for four years, mostly in the field of social science. Mr. Allen has been devoted to teaching as well as other activities such as the backpacking club and the J.V. baseball team. We not dedicate this book to Mr. Allen with pride.

San Juan's American Field Service was one of the most active clubs on campus this year. Led by Mrs. Sandy Willoughby, AFS brought off a very successful year. This year's foreign exchange student was Felicie Fabre from France. Members of AFS raised money by various projects to help support Felicie in her stay here. Nick Salerno, a senior this year, spent 11 months in Brazil as part of the exchange program, that AFS also helped to finance. In doing this, students showed their concern for world harmony.

Year's Theme for AFS

I am so happy to be here, thanks to you. I want to thank you for the warm welcome you have given to me. I appreciate the opportunity that I have had. I'll probably have the chance to live in another country for a year again. It is so interesting to be able to meet new people whose customs and culture are different than mine. I want to thank all the people who have contributed to make my stay here such an enjoyable and worthwhile experience especially my American family. I hope to see all of you again.

Spartanettes assisted in activities around the school which teachers and others at other schools get paid for. Two of the many things they did was selling tickets at football games, basketball games, and ushering parents at meetings.

The Drama club held meetings in members' homes this year. Everyone enjoyed the improvisations and cultural enrichment. Trips were made to the Renaissance Faire and Dickens Christmas Fair, and in January they helped produce the childrens' play Rumpelstilskin With a Happy Ending.

MRS. GREGOIRE checked over the list of Spartanettes. She enjoyed working with them. The group compared with the Deans list in Universities.

pating in Off-Campus Student Gov't

San Juan's Model United Nations Club was very active this year. The club represented the nation Uruguay at a three-day Model UN convention. The member researched on the country so they could prepare legislation on issues such as economics. Mr. Tavella served as advisor to this organization helping to promote international relationships.

Lisa Wilson and John Mapes were chosen by the faculty and administration to represent San Juan at the 1974-75 Girls' and Boys' State sponsored by the American Legion. They took part in state, county, and city government. Mock elections were held where mayors, representatives, senators and a governor were elected. Congress then proposed bills and set up legislation on various issues. This experience was a very memorable one for John and Lisa.

Jerrilyn Schenken & Louise Patterson

MRS. JERRILYN SCHENKEN was a well-liked teacher at San Juan. Teaching in the field of Home Economics, Mrs. Schenken inspired her students to achieve their best in all projects. In Sewing, and the particularly popular Dec Arts classes, many useful and beautiful articles were produced. Although Mrs. Schenken was not a member of the faculty for an extremely long time, she will be missed enormously by students as well as faculty. The vearbook staff could easily speak for the whole school in expressing the feelings of loss and sorrow for such a dedicated teacher, to retirement. This space in the annual was dedicated to Mrs. Jerrilyn Schenken to show the appreciation that the San Juan Student Body and Faculty had for all of the work done for the school and its students.

Above: MRS. JERRILYN SCHENKEN put the finishing touches on a bulletin board depicting various projects for her Dec Arts classes.

Right: Mrs. Schenken was always willing and able to assist her students over their difficulties on their projects.

Retired After Much Dedication

After over twenty years of dedicated service to San Juan High School, Mrs. Louise Patterson decided to retire. Working as secretary in the Counseling Office, Louise Patterson came in contact with almost the entire population of San Juan. Scheduling and coordinating appointments, Mrs. Patterson kept the office running smoothly.

These were only a few services which she performed for our school. The dedication of this page was only a small token of gratitude and appreciation of her dedication, and expression of grief that was experienced by the school at her retirement. The Annual Staff was positive that the whole school joined in wishing Mrs. Louise Patterson every bit of luck in future years.

Right: MRS. LOUISE PATTERSON worked busily in the Counseling Office, typing up necessary forms.

for Perfection

Working together as a group, experiencing the sensation of group achievement, and learning to appreciate music, comprised the main goals of the Pep Band, Madrigals, and Concert choir. Directed by Mr. Warren Turner, the Pep Band performed during rallies and games to promote spirit for our alma mater. The Madrigals and Concert Choir, also under the leadership of Mr. Turner, met daily to train their talents in music. Having a genuine interest in the field of music, these students labored to reach their final product of excellence.

Two Dedicated Teachers Served San

In Memory of

Mr. William Harris Mather

William Harris Mather began his San Juan High School teaching career in 1962, coming here from Anderson High School. He had taught primarily in the English Department before being assigned to the Social Science Department. He had served in the navy during the second world war before enrolling at the University of California at Berkeley.

He was a strict, demanding teacher who set high goals for his students and himself. One could be very proud of getting an A or B from Mr. Mather. Not many of his associates were aware of the deep concern he had for his "kids." His life was centered around the three most important parts of his life; his good wife, his church, which he served faithfully to the end, and his Spartan students.

On the very day when he answered the final roll call, he was still working out plans for his summer school class and looking forward to the opening of another school year. He had a strong belief in the immortality of the human soul, and all of us who worked with him and who studied under him profited from that relationship.

Juan for Many Years

Felix Hager

After Felix Hager received his A.B. from St. Louis University, he went to school in South Dakota, where he had roles from drama coach to principal.

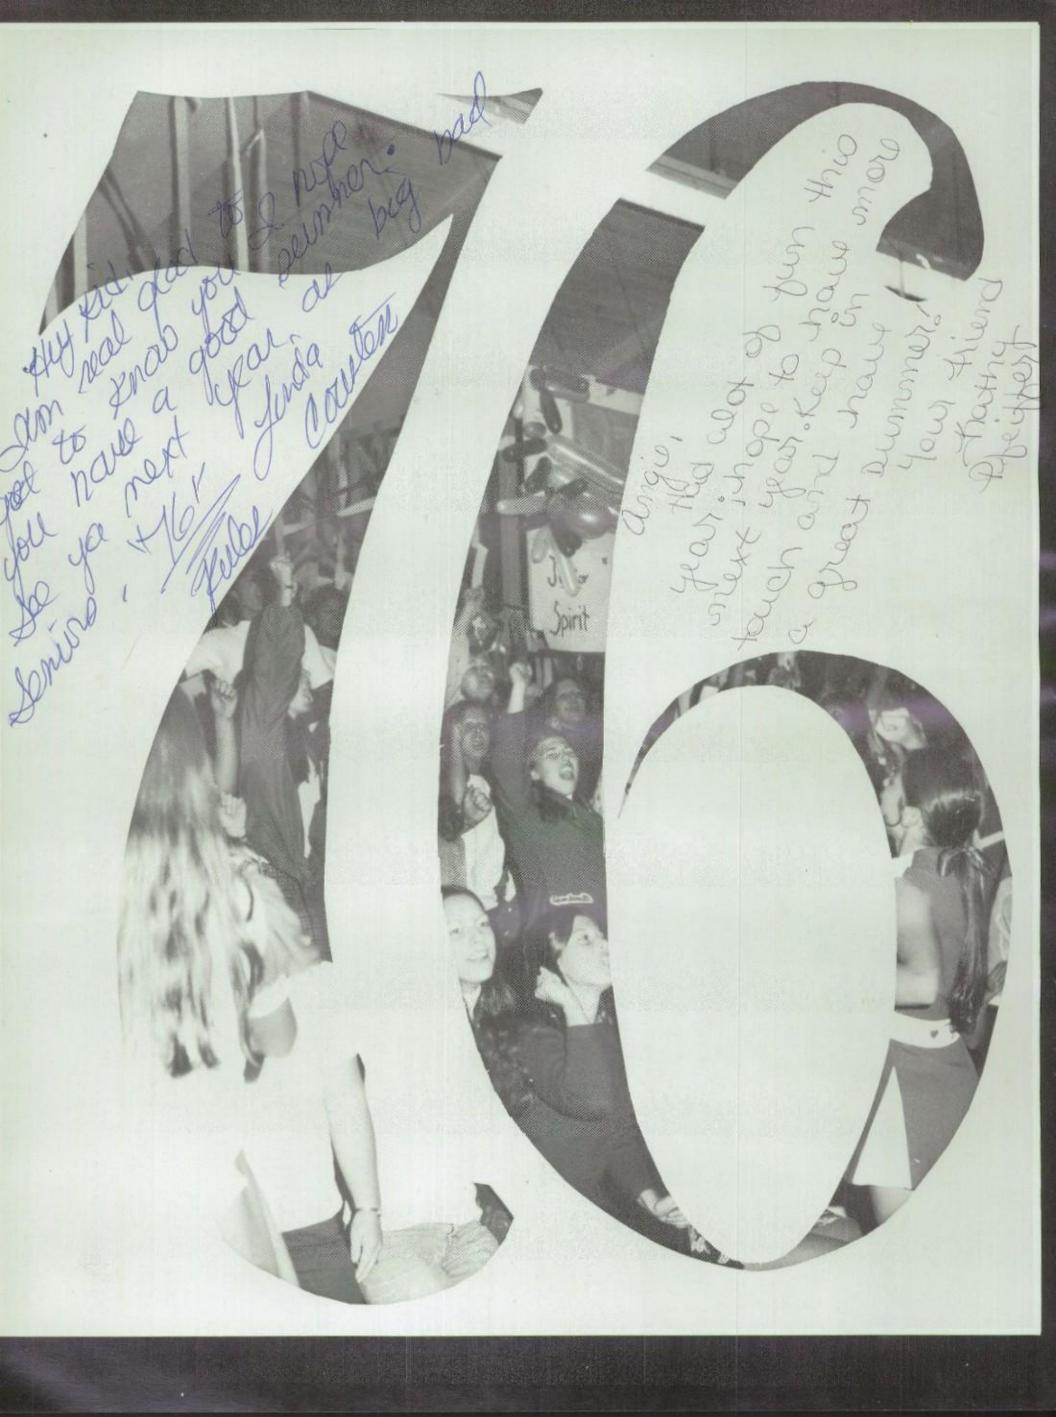

Mr. Hager came to San Juan in 1949, and the word spread quickly that he was a no-nonsence teacher who was willing to go to great lengths for anyone who tried, but was very serious about his work.

Throughout his years at San Juan, he taught English, Latin, Spanish, and German. He became department chairman in 1957, and worked hard to make San Juan the first school in this area to have a language laboratory.

In 1961 Mr. Hager took a year's leave of absence to study at Heidelberg University. He brought back new enthusiasm, which made him a natural for chairing the student scholarship committee, and a member of the teachers salary committee. He sponsored clubs including, Latin, photography, German, Inter-language, and chess. Outside interests are still his farm animals, garden work, and photography. His last years at San Juan were spent overcoming a heart ailment, which was finally resolved by surgery.

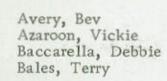

Felix Hager had respect for learning, his students, and his colleagues, as the whole school had respect for him. When he retired in 1974, San Juan lost a gentleman and a scholar.

Varsity Football

Football Players Come in Many Sizes and Sha

RICH ELLIOT broke through the back field for good yardage.

MIKE WITEK knew the importance of of pre-game warm-up.

This year brought about many joyous times and events for the Varsity Football team. Under the superb coaching of Mr. Schroeder and with the aid of Coach Trent they put forth the idea that winners never quit, and quitters never win. With this idea put forth the Varsity Football team went out and gave all they had to give. Football is a sport of guts, muscles, and brains. Without all three of these ingredients there would be no football players. San Juan football players had these ingredients which made them tough opponents through-out the year.

pes, But S.J. Football Players Came Tough!!!

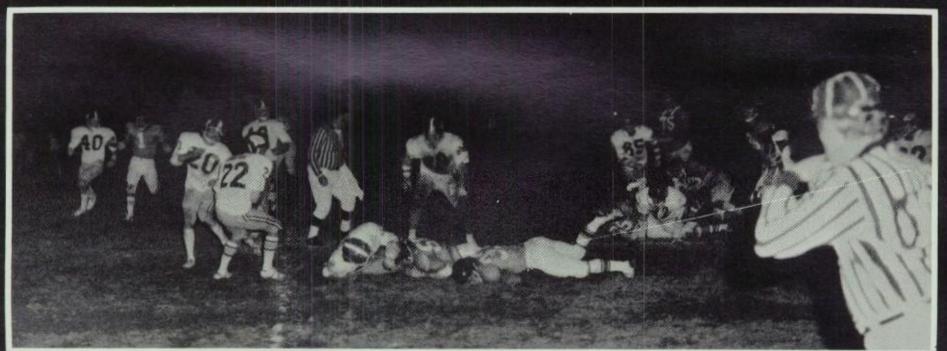

A Spartan receiver caught the pass between the much confused secondary of the opponents.

Coach ANDERSON showed the way it had to be.

If one expects to succeed in life, whether in a career or just within our society, one must have a good command of the English language. The English teachers at San Juan worked hard to assist students in the comprehension and understanding of their native tongue. The future of the students at S.J. is greatly influenced by their teachers.
